ABOUT US

The Dublin Book Club was founded in 2020, as a way to connect with fellow book lovers. Each meeting is hosted by a member of the club, who will come prepared with questions to ask, which prompt discussion about the book we’ve read - and there is also plenty of time to socialize as well!

Curious? Check out some past events and hear from current members in our gallery, or register for our next meet-up!

"I've been attending for nearly a year now, and I look forward to it every time! It gets me reading books I normally wouldn't, and the group is great!" - Sophie B.

"This has been a great way to meet new people. We even had virtual sessions during the pandemic! I couldn't think of a more welcoming group." - Steven R.

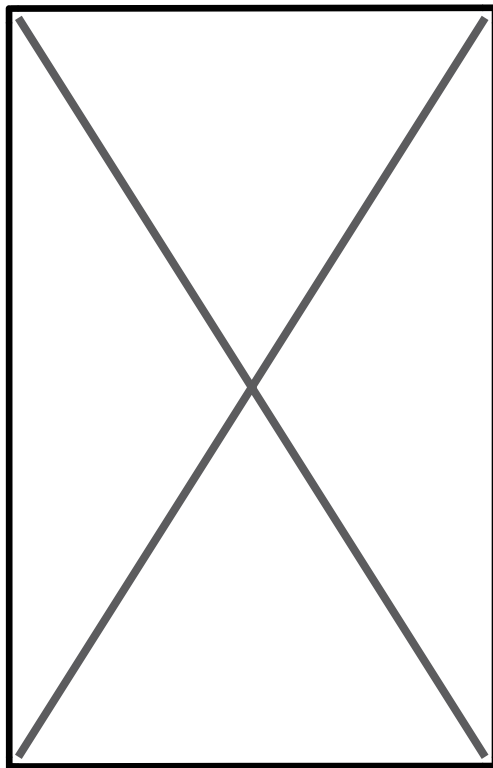

"I was in a real reading slump when I first found the Dublin Book Club, and I'm now reading more books than ever. Love it!" - Dee R.
